

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Gray & Cole Ward Hill, Mass.

1953

HEMEROCALLIS (DAY LILY)

Yellow. orange, coppery pink, brown, or red flowers. Thrive in part shade. Using several varieties, bloom from June to August.

	Each.
	1	3	5
APRICOT. Very early apricot-yellow.	$.40	.37	.32
FULVA KWANSO. Double Tawny Daylily.	.50	.45	.40
FULVA MACULATA. Best type of the Tawny Daylily.	.50	.45	.40
FULVA ROSEA (ROSALIND). Coppery pink. Rare species.	.75	.70	.65
GOLDENI. Deep orange.	.40	.37	.32
HEATHER ROSE. Cream flushed peach-pink.	1.25	---	---
HESPERUS. Medium yellow. Very large wide-open flowers.	.75	.70	.65
HIGHBOY. Very tall, 5 ft., late yellow.	.40	.37	.32
HYPERION. The best pale yellow. Large & fine.	.50	.45	.40
JEAN. Brilliant bicolor, red and orange. Late.	1.25	--	--
MIKADO. Orange with mahogany spots.	.40	.37	.32
MINNIE. Velvety mahogany red. Rich color.	.75	.70	.65
MRS. JOHN J. TIGERT. Brilliant orange-red. Striking.	.75	.70	.65
OPHIR. Large golden yellow.	.50	.45	.40
PATRICIA. Pale yellow, green throat.	.50	.45	.40
PURPLE WATERS. Wine red or brown-red.	.75	.70	.65
SUNNY WEST. Pale yellow, Taller & Later than Hyperion.	.50	.45	.40
THERON. Dark red-purple. Our darkest variety.	.75	.70	.65

Add 15% for postage or ~~we~~ can ship express collect.

